

Managing Cattle in Drought Conditions

“Staying Out of Trouble”

Monday November 28th, 2016

5:30 p.m. to 9:00 p.m.

Where: Carroll County Ag Center/Extension Office
900 Newnan Road
Carrollton, GA 30117

Program: Georgia’s Current Severe Drought Condition and Predictions into 2017
by Dr. Pam Knox, University of Georgia Agriculture Climatologist

Managing Nutrition and Forage Quality during Severe Drought
by Dr. Jacob Segers, University of Georgia Assistant Professor/Cattle Nutrition

Understanding Diseases and Health Challenges in Drought
by Dr. Brenton Credille, University of Georgia College of Veterinary Medicine/Beef Production Management

Navigating Expenses and Tax Challenges
by Dr. Levi Russell, University of Georgia Assistant Professor/Agriculture Economist

Cost: $10 which includes meal and reference material. To attend the workshop, please register by November 23. You may register by emailing Richard Littleton at rlittle@uga.edu or calling Carroll County Extension at 770-836-8546.

Registration Form for Managing Cattle during Drought Conditions

Name(s) _____

Address _____

Phone _____ Email _____

Number of people attending _____ Total payment enclosed _____

Checks can be made payable to Carroll County Extension/4-H.

Mail to UGA Extension Carroll County,
900 Newnan Road, Carrollton, GA 30117.